Gone But Not Forgotten

Fear no more the heat o' the sun
Nor the furious winter's rages;
Thou thy worldly tasks hast done,
Home art gone and ta'en thy wages:
Golden lads and girls all must,
As chimney-sweepers, come to dust.

Fear no more the lightning-flash
Nor the all-dreaded thunder-stone;
Fear not slander, censure rash;
Thou hast finished joy and moan:
All lovers young, all lovers must
Consign to thee, and come to dust.

Paying tribute to two of our friends and former upperclassmen, we, the Senior class of 1966, dedicate this Annual in memoriam to Raymond Steder and Ronnie Meier, who died in tragic traffic accidents. As members of the class of 1965, they were liked by all. The memory of Raymond and Ronnie will remain forever within the hearts and minds of those who knew them.

SECRETARY--Velma Bennett

Ambitious, alert, and ever-ready to lend a helping hand is Mrs. Bennett, our school secretary. Besides performing her routine duties, Mrs. Bennett aids in supplying needs and information for all students and faculty members.

CUSTODIANS--John Rosin and Ed Bossert

Keeping our school in tip-top shape, the custodians work diligently from morning to night. Both Mr. Bossert and Mr. Rosin have devoted many years of service to our school.

BUS DRIVERS

Responsibility weighs heavily on the shoulders of our bus drivers. In addition to transporting students to and from school each day, they also take students to all music and athletic events, and other school functions.

COOKS

Providing nourishing meals for the ever-hungry students are the school cooks. They're always there carrying out the thankless job of satisfying our appetites.

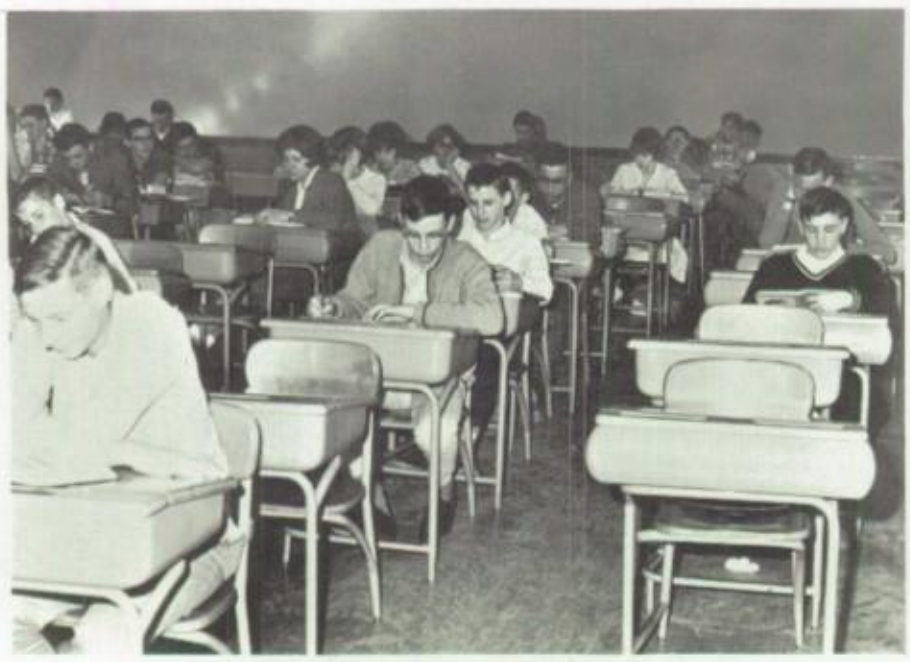
Activities

Freshman Initiation...

INITIATION

Welcomed by the mighty seniors, the greenhorn freshmen were officially made members of Selby High at an initiation party. Everyone enjoyed themselves dancing and eating their sack lunches. At the close of the evening the freshmen sang to the upperclassmen and faculty. Everyone will agree that initiation was just one of the many successful activities of Selby High.



Marching Band

Playing an important role in Selby High are the many Musical activities. Under the direction of Miss Kaul and Mr. Goehring, all groups have made outstanding achievements during the year. A Christmas concert was given with the band and choral groups participating. Other highlights of the year were marching at Gypsy Day and Ellendale, and the regional music contests. Selby was very well represented in each of these events.

Declam

DECLAM

Under the direction of Miss Schuerkamp, fourteen students participated in the local declamation contest. Those chosen to represent Selby in the district contest at Hosmer were: Oratory, Deanna Aman; Dramatic, Jaci Huffman; Poetry, Cynthia Manke; and Humorous, Diana Stiegelmeier. Deanna, Cynthia, and Diana were again chosen to represent our district at the Regional contest in Miller. As a result of all this hard work and extra hours of practice, Selby received the trophy for scoring the most points in the District. At the Regional contest, Deanna, Cynthia, and Diana each received an "excellent" rating.

Junior Class Play

" Class Ring "

When Tobey Heydon decides to go steady, with Brose Gilman, her many problems begin. Although Tobey is going steady this doesn't stop Kip and Dick from trying to woo her. Trouble mounts up when Mrs. Heydon goes on a trip to see her daughter, and Tobey, her sister Midge, and Father are left home to run the house. When Mother returns things return to normal, and all ends well after Tobey finds an answer to her question, "Should I go steady?" This comedy was directed by Miss Kaul and presented on November 19. The cast included: TOBEY, Tamra Stulken; LAURA HEYDON, Kathy Thorstenson; HENRY HEYDON, Curtis Bossert; MIDGE, Juel Byre; BROSE, Robert White; BARBIE, Betty Manke; KAY, Michele Higgins; MARY, Gloria Schlomer; DICK, Doug Weiszhaar; KIP, Tim Pressler; ITCHY, Delwyn McDonald; JUDY, Roberta Mickelson; MISS JEFFERSON, Dorothy Hettich; JULIAN THORPE, Dennis Bauman; THE EGG MAN, Mike Perman.

Speech and Drama ...

ONE-ACT PLAY

Members of the Selby High School body participated in the one-act play contest for the first time this year. The play cast included: Deanna Aman, Cynthia Manke, Tamra Stulken, Sandy Kasch, Jaci Huffman, Diana Stiegelmeier, Sandi Ruzsa, Mavis Stulken, and Patti Dahlquist.

The play "More Perfect Union" is the story of several members of the Blythville High School Glee Club who form hasty and unjustified opinions of one of their fellow members, but later realize their error. Under the direction of Miss Kaul and Miss Schuerkamp, Selby received an "excellent" rating at the contest in Mobridge.

"S" Club

Football lettermen, basketball lettermen, track lettermen, and cheerleaders make up Selby High's lettermen's society, known as the "S" Club. The year's projects included sponsoring a movie, Two on a Guillotine, after the dance on Homecoming, purchasing a "Selby Lions" banner, selling megaphones, and selling Lion's booster pins during the Conference Tournament. These activities took the place of the Christmas formal, which was not held this year. Officers for the coming school year are elected in the spring of every year. This year's officers were: Ron Swift, President; Bob White, Vice-president; and Nancy Thompson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Football

The Selby Lions, undefeated in eight-man football in 1965, gained the rating of fifth best team in the state. Led by co-captains Curt Bossert and Tim Pressler, the Lions rolled over their opposition scoring 281 points to their opponents' 70. Although the offensive unit did a lot of scoring, the defensive unit was the backbone of the team. The Lions led off the season with a victory over a good Pollock team. Highlights of the season came with a 42-0 Homecoming win over Java, and a 41-0 win over Hoven. The mighty Lions then ended the season with a 46-13 win over the strong McIntosh eight.

Under the new head coach, John Salzsiedler, the Lions developed a strong team, with good reserve strength. Selby placed two men on South Dakota's All-State Eight man Football teams. Tim Pressler, first team at quarterback, and Curt Bossert, second team center. After losing part of their team to graduation, the Lions hope to have enough strength remaining to go undefeated next year.

Homecoming

Chosen to rule over Selby High, King Ron and Queen Nancy began their majestic reign on October 1. Their regal attendants were: Lani Reede, Deanna Aman, Darrell Beitelspacher, and Jim Schilling. Bearing the crowns were Donel Lemburg and Monte Goetz. Books provided the theme for an impressive ceremony. After coronation the traditional bonfire and hayride with a pep fest were attended by all the loyal subjects.

On Friday evening, Homecoming activities were continued with a football game between the Java Panthers and the Lions, who proved to be too much for the Panthers. A very successful homecoming was concluded by a victory dance and a late show.

The 1965-66 Selby Lion's basketball season was the most successful of Coach Jack Stewart's regime. Although the Lions did not go as far as some fans had hoped, they compiled an outstanding season's record of 18-6 and were at one time rated the number seven team on the Associated Press Class "B" basketball poll. The high point of the season came when the Lions avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of the Hoven club by trouncing the Greyhounds in the championship game of the Conference Tournament, 70-47. Selby, led by All-Conference Ron Swift, Bill Rosin, Tim Pressler, and Curt Bossert, had earlier defeated Bowdle in the first round game and Glenham in the semi-finals. After ending the season in a tie with the Glenham Eagles for second place in the Yellowstone Trail Conference, Selby entered the District Tourney with high hopes. The Pollock Bulldogs fell to the Lions in the first round game. Then Selby won a thriller from Wakpala in the semis, 68-64, to enter the championship game with the undefeated Eureka Trojans. The Trojans proved too much for the Lions to handle, and after a great game, Selby went down in defeat, 74-69. The Lions again placed their share of talent on the All-District team, with Ron Swift, Tim Pressler, and Curt Bossert receiving those honors, and Bill Rosin being named honorable mention.

Classes

Selby's Girls' Stater and county D.A.R. candidate was DEANNA AMAN. She participated in concert, marching, and pep bands, girls' and mixed chorus, and declam in which she was a state participant one year. She was in All-State Band for three years, and was an accompanist for various musical groups. Deanna especially enjoyed these speech and musical activities. She was also editor of the Pride, a member of the Homecoming royalty, and took part in both class plays and the one-act play. Deanna was an instrumental soloist, Freshman class secretary, Junior class president, student council secretary, and a member of the Band Council. One of her most outstanding achievements was to be chosen a member of the U. S. of America H. S. Band.

LINDA ANDERSON tells us that as she looks back on her high school years, sports events and the prom were her favorite activities. She participated in girls' and mixed chorus and declam. Immediately after graduation Linda will enter the National School of Commerce in Aberdeen.

GERALDINE BERG, better known to her classmates as "Geri", participated in "A", Pep, and Marching Bands; Girls' and Mixed Chorus, and Mixed Ensemble. She was make-up artist for the Junior class play. Attending Stewart's School of Hairstyling in Aberdeen is what she plans to do after graduation. Music contests in Mobridge and the Prom were highlights in Geri's high school days.

JIM BEVERS joined our class as a sophomore, and transferred to Gettysburg after the first semester of his senior year. He had a ready smile for everyone, and was always joking. While in Selby Jim participated in basketball, football, was a member of the "S" club.

DARRELL BEITELSPACHER entered Selby High in his sophomore year. He fought with the football squad for three years, played basketball for one year, and went out for track two years. Darrell's future plans consist of entering college or the Marines. Being chosen a member of the homecoming royalty stands out among his high school memories.

STEVEN DIGMAN always has a ready smile for all his friends. He has been kept busy with football in his freshman and sophomore years, librarian, and handling props for the Junior Class Play. Steve found Homecomings and the prom to be quite enjoyable. His future plans are to enter college or join the Air Force.

Good-natured KEITH GOEHRING says the activities which he enjoyed most were class plays, freshman initiation, and being a waiter for the prom. He participated in band, chorus, football, track, and was a member of the "S" Club. Keith plans to study veterinary medicine at South Dakota State University.

Always ready for fun is TERRY HETTICH. During his high school years he took part in football, basketball, and track. Terry found sports, the prom, and the homecoming activities most enjoyable. His future plans are to attend Black Hills State College.

LARRY HORST, better known as Hoss, has taken part in football, basketball, track for four years, and was also a member of the "S" Club for four years. He enjoyed football and attending the State Basketball tournaments. Larry also enjoyed decorating for the prom and floats. His future plans are to do electrical line work.

Mechanically inclined DONNIE KELLER plans to attend Auto Body Repair School after graduation. He participated in boys' and mixed chorus, and had a part in the Junior Class Play. He helped decorate for Homecomings and the prom, which were enjoyable experiences for him.

WAYNE KULM has been busy during his years at High School with football in his junior and senior years, and track when he was a freshman. He helped decorate for homecomings and the prom, and was a member of the "S" Club. One of Wayne's most important activities was being football student manager in his junior year.

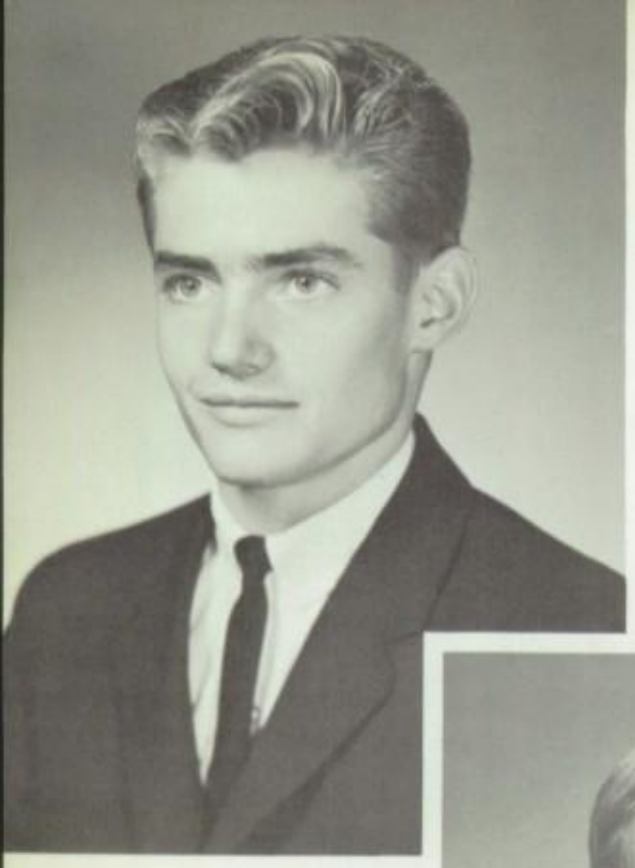
RONNIE LINDEMAN, a quiet, easygoing lad, joined our ranks in his senior year. He enjoyed school parties above all other activities. Ronnie's future plans are to enter the Navy for four years.

Tiny, petite CHARLENE LUND's activities were girls' and mixed chorus, and triple trio. She was also a majorette in her senior year. Among Charlene's fondest memories of her high school days were being chosen a waitress for the prom and ambassador for Baccalaureate services. She plans to attend NSC and study Medical Technology.

CYNTHIA MANKE was a member of concert, marching, and pep band, orchestra, girls' and mixed ensemble, girls' and mixed chorus, and band council. These musical activities were her favorites. Cynthia was alternate Girls' Stater, a majorette, and junior class secretary. She participated in declam, the one-act play, the junior class play, and clarinet quartet. Upon graduation Cynthia plans to attend the University of South Dakota.

Selby's Snow Queen, LANI REEDE, plans to enter SDSU after graduation for a career in nursing. This vivacious senior has been active in "A" band, mixed and girls' chorus, orchestra, annual staff, and trombone quartet. She was accompanist for musical groups, a majorette, student council president, a member of the homecoming royalty, and a cheerleader. Cheering was one of her favorite activities.

BILL ROSIN may seem quiet, but look again. Through his high school years Bill has enjoyed basketball, track, boys' and mixed chorus, and being a waiter for the prom. He was a member of the Annual Staff, "S" Club, and production staff of both class plays. One of Bill's most memorable experiences was being chosen alternate to attend Boys' State.



Witty DAVE RYGH joined the class during his junior year. He found being on an undefeated football team and having a successful basketball season most enjoyable during his high school years. Dave's extracurricular activities included basketball, and football for four years, boys and mixed chorus for two years. When questioned about his future plans, Dave replied, "attending college."

Well-liked by everyone, DAVE SALVERSON was a member of the band, boys' and mixed chorus, boys' octet, "S" Club, and both class plays. He was prom banquet master of ceremonies, freshman class vice-president, student council treasurer, and participated in declam, football, and track. Dave was chosen to go to All-State Chorus in his freshman year, and since then has been a vocal soloist. A career in chemical engineering is what he plans to do after graduation.

Good natured TERRY SCHERER was student manager for football during his senior year. He was photographer for the Annual Staff, a member of the "S" Club, and portrayed a policeman in the Junior Class Play. Entering the U. S. Air Force is what he plans to do after graduation. When asked what he enjoyed most about his high school days he replied, "Noon hours at Chesky's Auto."

JIM SCHILLING is known to many as Fux. Through his high school years he took part in basketball, football, boys glee, and the senior class play. Football, parties, State Basketball tournament, and noon hours at Chesky's Auto were found most enjoyable by Jim. Being chosen as a member of the royalty was one of Jim's most memorable highlights. He plans on attending BHSC after graduation.

Dark of hair, light of heart is DENNIS SCHNEIDER. He joined the class during his junior year. Noon hour, fire drills, assemblies, prom, and homecoming decorating were found the most enjoyable activities during his high school years. When asked what his future plans are after graduation he answered, "going into the service."

Likeable CLYDE SMITH enjoyed chorus, proms, homecoming, initiation, and was interested in girls during his high school years. He took part in football and basketball during his freshman and sophomore years, track during his junior year, four years of mixed and boys chorus. Clyde's future plans are to go into the service and possibly go overseas for three or four years.

Well-liked by all his classmates, DON STEDER tells us with a sheepish grin that days with fire drills were among his favorites. He also enjoyed the prom and initiation. Don's athletic activity during high school was track. Future plans for Don are to go to college and there study engineering.

Music activities have been the favorite of HARRIET STENSBY. She has been active in girls' and mixed choruses, girls' ensemble, mixed ensemble, concert, marching and pep band, brass ensemble, and All-State Chorus. Harriet was on the production of the class plays, participated in declam, the math contest, and was a librarian. She plans to continue her education at Northern State College, where she will study secondary education.

Reliable and industrious DIANA STIEGELMEIER has been busy during her high school years with concert, marching and pep band, girls' and mixed chorus, mixed ensemble, triple trio, soloist, All-State Chorus for two years, and one-act play. She has also taken part in declamation, junior and senior class plays, a waitress for prom, is a member of the Annual Staff, and was chosen a member of the U. S. of America High School Band and Chorus. Diana was selected as homemaker of tomorrow and was secretary-treasurer of the Senior class. She found music, the proms and the class plays most enjoyable. After graduation, Diana plans to attend Northern State College.

Handsome PAUL STROH has found the proms and homecomings most enjoyable during his high school years. He has participated in football, track, basketball, was a student council member, an usher for the junior class play, a member of the "S" club and on the decoration committee for the prom. One well-remembered highlight of Paul's junior year in high school was leading the processional at Baccalaureate.

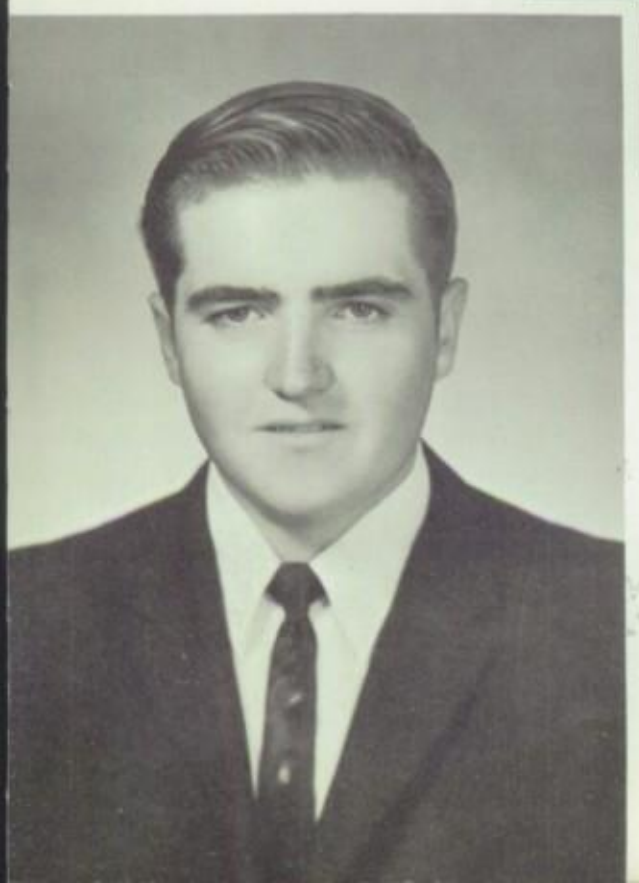
Bubbly MAVIS STULKEN has participated in pep and "A" band, orchestra, mixed and girls' chorus, triple trio, trombone quartet, brass sextet, the Junior and Senior class plays, and the one-act play. She was typist for the annual staff, waitress for the prom, Junior class treasurer, and ambassador for graduation. Mavis attended All-State Chorus in her Senior year and has been a vocal and instrumental soloist. She plans a career in nursing at Fairview School of Nursing at Minneapolis.

Selby's Homecoming King and Boys' Stater, RON SWIFT, was also Freshman class president, Sophomore student council representative, Junior class vice-president, Senior class president, "S" club president and vice-president, and sports editor of the annual staff. This athletic senior was named to both All-Conference and All-District basketball teams, played football, and participated in track. Ron's favorite activities were basketball, class plays, "S" club, prom, and initiation. He plans to further his education at School of Mines and Technology at Rapid City.

Science was the major interest of DUANE THOMPSON during his high school years, so he plans to have a career in industrial chemistry. He was also interested in music, being in the band, choruses, and boys' quartet and octet. Duane took part in the Junior class play, was the freshman class treasurer, and a member of the "S" club.

NANCY THOMPSON, Selby's Homecoming Queen, was a member of concert, marching, and pep bands, girls' and mixed choruses, and both class plays. She was secretary of her sophomore class, and secretary of the "S" Club. Upon graduation, she plans to attend Northern State College. Being a cheerleader for four years stands out as one of the highlights of Nancy's high school years.

Band and initiation were some of ROSE TWETE's most enjoyable activities. This intelligent senior also participated in mixed and girls' choruses, brass sextet, and was a typist for the annual staff. SDSU and a career in mathematics is what Rose plans to do after graduation.



With a mischievous gleam in his eye KEN WALKER tells us that he enjoyed the freshman picnic, and Friday nights during his high school years. Ken was on the football team for one year. Upon graduation he plans to go to mechanical school and wait for Uncle Sam to call him.

Dear Donna, (OOPS!)

Well, we are going to be Juniors! Finally! I can hardly believe it. All that icky Biology and Speech! Well, best of luck to a real sweet girl in your future school years and for the rest of your life.

As always,
Jac

Dear Donna,

Well, we're going to be Big Juniors! We Hope! At times I was beginning to wonder if it would ever end, espicially when I was worrying about some of those speechs. Well, here's wishing good luck to a real nice girl in future years at SHS and always.

a fellow classmate,
Junie

Dear Donna,

Well, we're finally gonna be big Juniors. I hope! Good luck to a swell classmate.

Rita

Dear Donna,

Well, can you believe we're Juniors? (Almost, anyway) Boy, are we getting old! At least next year we won't have to give any more speeches (I always). See you next year if not always. Have a fabulous summer.

Patti

P.S. Good luck on those speeches.
